

Our city has completed Stage A of the Resilience Roadmap

To complete Stage A, our city has conducted public awareness events, held an orientation workshop, and established a resilience committee. Our local government is getting ready. Your community is becoming more resilient and reducing its disaster risk.

